Per Shri G.Singhvi, CJ

In this petition, the petitioners have prayed for issue of a mandamus to the respondent to issue hall tickets to them for the written test being held for the post of Junior Assistant.

Learned counsel for the parties jointly state that in furtherance of interim order dated 21-07-2006, the petitioners were issued hall tickets and they were allowed to appear in the written examination.

Smt. S.Bhaskara Lakshmi, learned counsel for the respondent further says that after clearing the written examination the petitioners were interviewed by the selection committee, but their names do not appear in the final selection list.

In view of the statements made by learned counsel for the parties, it is clear that the writ petition has become infructuous and the same is liable to be disposed of as such. Ordered accordingly.

While disposing of the writ petition as infructuous, we deem it proper to make it clear that if the petitioners have any grievance against selection made by the respondent, then they shall be free to represent their cause to the respondent/the High Court.
